

Duxbury Clipper,

March 25, 1971

LOCKWOOD

EXHIBIT STILL

ON AT LIBRARY

Visitors to the Helen Bumpus Gallery will have one more week to enjoy the varied and color of the George Lockwood show.

An exhibition of French landscape paintings by Jason Berger escapes painted by Jason Berger of Brookline will open on April 4. The library previously showed a Berger painting in its collectors' show of 1970. A drawing by the artist owned by the Smith College Museum of Art was featured in the loan exhibition from Smith in 1969.

UNDER-21 SHOW

The gallery will feature the art of Duxbury's young people in May. Individual entries will be accepted by the library and selected for exhibit by a jury of professional artists. The Under-21 Show, begun in 1970, will continue annually.

REQUESTS

Opportunity to request services and material will be provided by request forms available in the library. The library director and trustees are grooming long-range planning for programs and services and are interested always in public opinion.

TRUSTEES

In Saturday's election, incumbent trustee Thomas Leman Jr. was re-elected, and Richard Bridgwood elected to fill the two 3-year terms open in 1971. The library director, trustees, and staff acknowledge and express appreciation for the contributions for former trustee Harold Emerson to the development of Duxbury Free Library.

Mr. Emerson, recently elected to the School Committee, served three years on the board of library trustees.

Under 21 Show

Young Duxbury artists from ages 14-21 are invited to submit their art work to the Helen Bumpus Gallery for the annual "Under 21 Show." All work must be in by Saturday, May 15. Selections for the show will be made by a special jury of artists.

An evening featuring all forms of creativity-music, dance, drama and poetry readings - is being planned for Saturday evening, May 22, in the Gallery.

The public is invited to meet the artists being exhibited and to enjoy the other forms of creativity.

must be framed or mounted for hanging and all work should be information: name, address, age, media, teacher or art school (if any), and all other pertinent information. Gay Youssef, gallery director, and a special jury will make the selections. In connection with the show, a creative evening is planned to feature all forms of artistic expression: poetry reading, acting, music. Those within the age limit who would be interested in participating should contact Mrs. Neubauer at the library, or George Percotti, a student at DHS.

UNDER 21 SHOW
AT HELEN BUMPUS
GALLERY

Entries for the Under-21 Show in the Helen Bumpus Art Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library will be accepted at the library from May 8 to May 14. The Under-21 show will feature the artistic achievements of the youth of Duxbury. Those submitting entries must be at least 14 and not more than 20. THE EXHIBITION Paintings, drawings, collages, sculptures, structures and photography will be accepted. Paintings and drawings

Duxbury Clipper, Thursday, May 13, 1971

Helen Bumpus Gallery
1971